

I'M NOT SURE HOW TO INTERPRET THE CHECK PERMISSIONS RESULT.

Perhaps your Check Permissions ISBN search has returned an amber result and you are not sure whether you can make copies under the Licence or you are confused by the answer. This is a step-by-step guide to help you, as a Higher Education Licensee, work out the permissions status for the publication you want to copy from and help you understand why you can or can't make copies.

THE UK PUBLISHER IS ON THE LIST OF PARTICIPATING DIGITAL PUBLISHERS.

The list shows UK digital material publishers that have opted-in to the Higher Education Licence. If the publisher is on the list you can make copies or re-use material from the digital publication.

If the publisher of the digital original publication is not shown on this list then the material may not be copied or re-used under the terms of the licence.

For digital material published outside the UK you will need to refer to the list of International Territories and click on the country for further details.

The easiest way to check what publications can be copied under your CLA licence is to use our Check Permissions tool.

THE PUBLISHER IS ON THE LIST OF 'GLOBAL MANDATE PUBLISHERS'.

Certain publishers have instructed us directly that their titles should be covered by CLA licences whatever their country of publication.

If the publication that you want to copy from is on this list, you can, subject to the defined extent limits, make photocopies and scans from the publication.

The easiest way to check what publications can be copied under your CLA licence is to enter the ISBN or ISSN in to the Check Permissions tool.

Please note that the Check Permissions tool will identify the country of publication as UK where CLA have an international mandate direct from the publisher.

THE PUBLISHER IS NOT BASED IN THE UK AND IS NOT ON THE LIST OF 'GLOBAL MANDATE PUBLISHERS.'

International repertoire exchange agreements with other countries permit UK licensees to copy from foreign magazines, books, journals and digital publications.

Current international agreements permit CLA licensees to photocopy titles published in the territories listed on our website (link below). Several of these territories also extend rights for scanning and for the reuse of digital publications, including some websites, depending on the type of licence you hold.

Please use the table outlining CLA's international territory agreements to check what type of copying is included for each territory and follow the links to see any specific inclusions or exclusions for each country.

The easiest way to check what publications can be copied under your CLA licence is to use our Check Permissions tool.

If the publisher is based in the USA, please click here

THE PUBLISHER IS BASED IN THE USA, IS NOT ON THE LIST OF 'GLOBAL MANDATE PUBLISHERS', AND NOT ON THE LIST OF EXCLUDED US PUBLISHERS.

- Print editions by US publishers are covered for photocopying under the CLA licence, unless specifically excluded.
- You can make scans if the publisher has opted the ISBN/ISSN into the CLA repertoire to include scanning permissions under the CLA Licence. If this is the case, the ISBN/ISSN search result will indicate this on the Check Permissions tool.
- If you need to make scans from an edition that has not been opted in to include scanning, please follow the guidance for excluded publishers
- If a suitable digital version is commercially available you should purchase or subscribe to this version instead of scanning from print.
- Permissions are linked to the ISBN, not the title. So if the ISBN has not been opted in by the publisher, please follow the guidance for excluded publishers
- Please also note that different editions of the same title can have different copying permissions if they have different ISBNs.
- Please note: If the ISBN/ISSN from a US published edition does not return a result, i.e. is 'Not Found' on Check Permissions, the ISBN/ISSN has not been opted in by the publisher to include scanning permissions under the CLA Licence. Please follow the guidance for excluded publishers.

I DON'T KNOW WHERE THE PUBLISHER IS BASED.

- Copying permissions under the CLA Licence depend on where the publisher's head-office is based.
- You can usually find the publisher's details on the title page of the book.
- If you have access to the Nielsen catalogue or WorldCat, you can usually find details on the country of publication here.
- For large multi-national publishers, it can be difficult to work out where the head-office is based as they often have offices all over the world. When in doubt, please get in touch with us and we can have a look for you.
- If you need help, please send an email to permissions@cla.co.uk
