

Public Administration Licence

Copying Guidelines for Employees

The CLA Public Administration Licence permits UK employees and other authorised persons to make Paper or Digital Copies of content, subject to certain terms and conditions, from most books, magazines, journals and periodicals as well as from a wide range of digital publications. Copies may be made from publications including those to which you subscribe and from articles or press cuttings provided by licensed external suppliers where a copyright fee has been paid (e.g. from a PR or press cuttings agency or the British Library).

1 Licence Coverage

- Photocopying
- Scanning
- Copying of digital content, e.g. e-books, PDF files from electronic subscriptions, online journal articles and certain website material

2 What can I use copies for?

- To share with colleagues at meetings or briefings
- To share media coverage within your organisation
- For Health & Safety or Environmental Awareness
- For internal training
- For UK regulatory and patent submissions
- To post articles from selected publications on your company website

3 How much can be copied?

On each occasion you may copy a single chapter of a book, up to two articles from a periodical, or up to 5% of a publication, whichever is the greater. Where a periodical issue or a substantial part of it is dedicated to a particular theme, any number of articles dealing with that particular theme may be copied.* For digital publications such as websites that are not conventionally structured, you should ensure that copying is limited to small extracts that are equivalent to these limits.

4 Who can make and receive copies?

Any UK employee in your organisation, including individual consultants or agency workers, can make and receive copies. The term 'consultants' also includes those members of a Designated Committee (not otherwise being an Authorised Person) when acting in connection with the activities of the Designated Committee and Local Authority Councillors.

5 Excluded Works

Please note that there are some individual titles, authors and categories of publications that are excluded from the Licence and you will need to contact the copyright owner directly for permission to copy these. To check if a work is excluded you can search for it on CLA's Check Permissions at cla.co.uk

6 Digital publications

Copying of electronic publications is restricted to publications published by Participating Digital Material Publishers. For full details please visit cla.co.uk

7 International publications

CLA has agreements with similar agencies in most major overseas territories enabling International publications and content to be copied under the CLA Licence. For full details of these overseas agencies and the countries that are covered please visit cla.co.uk

8 Check Permissions

The easiest way to check what can be copied is to use the Check Permissions search tool at cla.co.uk
