

Extended Multinational Business Licence

Copying Guidelines for Employees

The CLA Extended Multinational Licence permits employees to make Paper or Digital Copies of content, subject to certain terms and conditions, from most books, magazines, journals and periodicals as well as from a wide range of digital publications. Copies may be made from publications including those to which you subscribe and from articles or press cuttings provided by licensed external suppliers where a copyright fee has been paid (e.g. from a PR or press cuttings agency or the British Library).

1 Licence Coverage

- Photocopying
- Scanning
- Copying of digital content, e.g. e-books, PDF files from electronic subscriptions, online journal articles and certain website material

2 What can I use copies for?

- To share with colleagues at meetings or briefings
- To share media coverage within your organisation For market intelligence
- For Health & Safety or Environmental Awareness
- For research and development
- For internal training
- For regulatory and patent submissions
- To post articles from selected publications on your company website

3 How much can be copied?

On each occasion you may copy a single chapter of a book, a single article from a periodical, or up to 5% of a publication, whichever is the greater. For digital publications such as websites that are not conventionally structured, you should ensure that copying is limited to small extracts that are equivalent to these limits.

4 Who can make and receive copies?

Any employee in your organisation, including individual consultants or agency workers.

5 Excluded Works

Please note that there are some individual titles, authors and categories of publications that are excluded from the Licence and you will need to contact the copyright owner directly for permission to copy these. A list of these exclusions is on our website cla.co.uk

6 Digital publications

Copying of UK electronic publications is restricted to publications published by Participating Digital Material Publishers. For full details please visit cla.co.uk

7 International publications

UK employees

CLA has agreements with similar agencies in most major overseas territories enabling International publications and content to be copied under the CLA Licence. For full details of these overseas agencies and the countries that are covered please visit cla.co.uk

Non-UK employees

Copying outside the UK under the CLA Extended Multinational Licence is restricted to UK and US publications as well as works from a range of international publishers. Additional restrictions apply to US publications

8 Check Permissions

The easiest way to check what can be copied is to use CLA's Check Permissions search tool at cla.co.uk
